Waupun High School, Waupun, Wisconsin

Foreword . . .

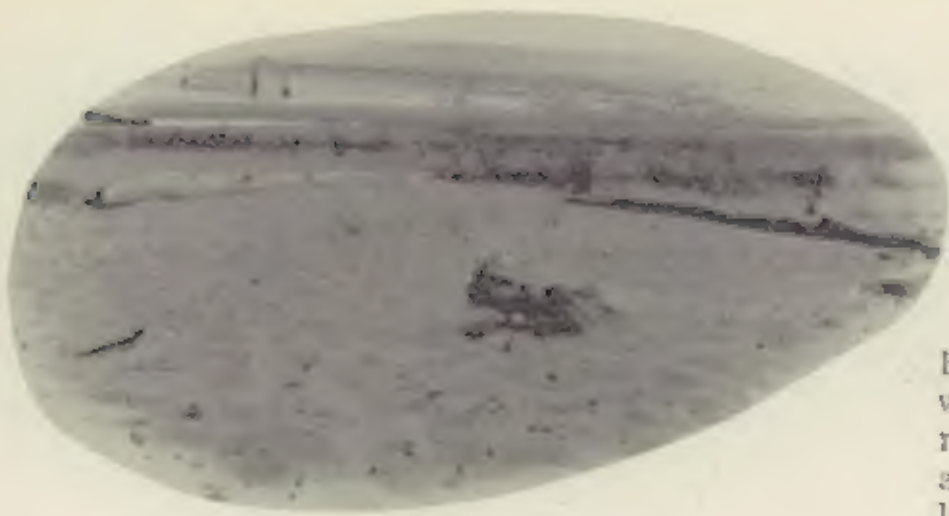

"When we have paced the length of the beach it is pleasant and not unprofitable to retrace our steps, and recall the whole mood and occupation of the mind during the former passage.

Our tracks being all discernible will guide us with an observing consciousness through every unconscious wandering of thought and fancy.

Here we trod along the brink of a fresh-water brooklet which flows across the beach, becoming shallower and more shallow, till at last it sinks into the sand and perishes in the effort to bear its little tribute to the main.

Here some vagary appears to have bewildered us; for our tracks go round and round and are confusedly intermingled, as if we had found a labyrinth upon the level beach.

And here amid our idle pastime, we sat down upon almost the only stone that breaks the surface of the sand, and were lost in an unlooked-for and overpowering conception of the majesty and awfulness of the great deep.

Thus, by tracking our footprints in the sand, we track our own nature in its wayward course, and steal a glance upon it when it never dreams of being so observed. Such glances always make us wiser."

--Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Seniors

MARY ALBERT

She makes an impression like a new piece of carbon paper.

CYNTHIA ARPKE

If you can't see me you can hear me.

ROMONA ATTENBERGER

Sharp with wit...no matter where, she'll always fit.

ALTON ASMUS

It's not a "Toni", it's natural.

MARY BARKLEY

She's none the least important 'cause she isn't very tall. I think you'll also find that sticks of dynamite are small.

HERBERT BEEKMAN

They say he is bashful, but you never can tell.

BRUCE BELSMA

Football man, track man, last but not least--a lady's man.

SHARON BELLING

She's very exact, she's very precise; she works awfully hard and is awfully nice.

RONALD BENNETT

Wheaties have done a lot for me.

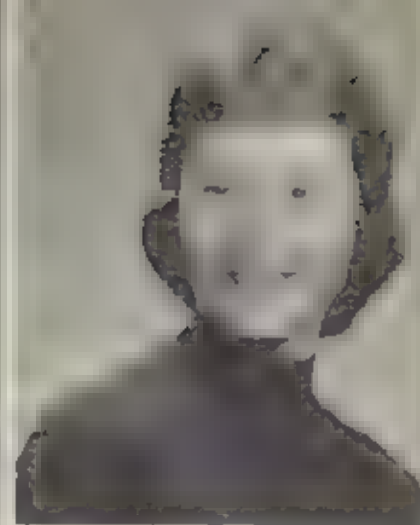

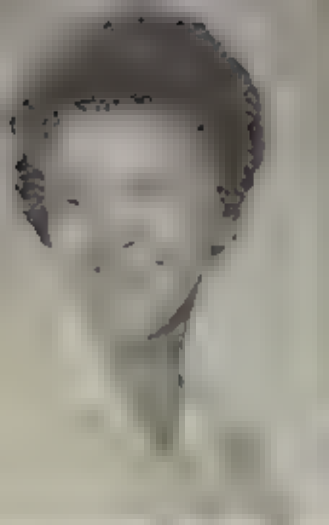

LOUISE BREWER

Every girl has her devilish moments.

Here we spent four profitable years.

JUDY BRUESCH

Her heart is like a moon, there's always a man in
it

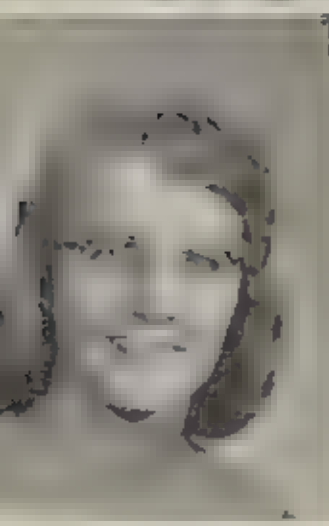

BETTY BRUNS

Friendly toward all, with manner sweet The kind of girl you like to meet

GARRETT DALTON

She's light headed, very light headed, in fact--she's a blonde.

DONALD DEMOTTIS

Is it a blonde hair I see on my shoulder?

MAUREEN DUTYAN

It's not what you do that's wrong! It's what you're ought at.

KATHLEEN DESSNER

From her presence showers a reign of melody

KATHLEEN DESSNER

The stars are led down and gave their sparkles to her eyes

DONALD DEVRIES

It's better to sleep in class than waste a perfectly good night

ARTHUR EHLETT

Do I look... slightly?
Well... slightly.
slightly?

THOMAS ELLMAN

Rosy cheeks, coat of tan bulging muscles--what a man!

Each day brought learning and growing.

NANCY FOLZMAN

A giggle here, a giggle there, she just giggles everywhere

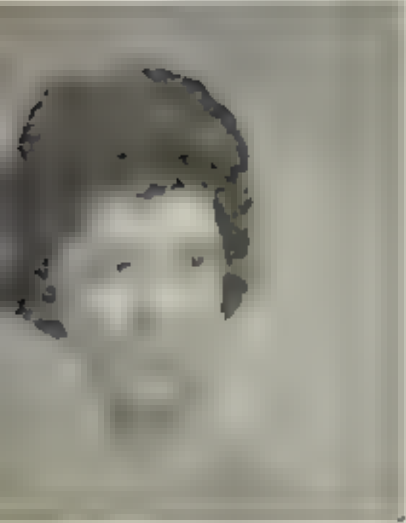

HAL FRENKE

Men of few words are the best ones.

DENNIS GERTSON

The type of woman I like is the type that's with me at the moment

BARBARA GERTSON

She runs here, and runs there, and sometimes even stops for air.

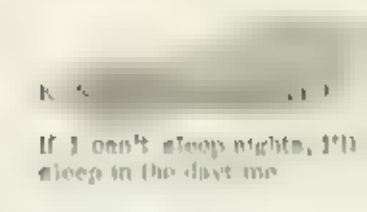

JANICE GOULD

Fructus and definite in her way--this will reward her well someday.

ALTON GREENFIELD

NANCY GREENFIELD

If I can't sleep nights, I'll sleep in the day too

NANCY GREENFIELD

Quiet and unassuming, but always on the job.

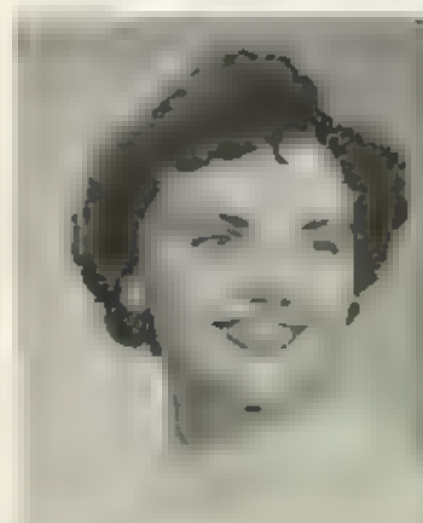

LINDA HARNESS

Ever faithful, ever true, to the task she has to do.

WILLIAM HEERENGA

Why hurry?

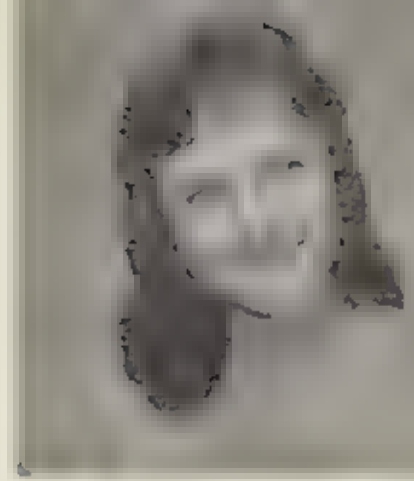

Amid teenage thoughts of fun and fancy,

You girls who to the cave-men bow, have hope, for here is one new

BETTY HESSELINK

Be a live wire and you won't get stepped on

CAROL ROMAN

Give me those dark eyes to build a dream on,

... who blushes is better than one who turns pale.

RYLAND

Women? I never heard of them. What are they like?

GRETCHEN HULL

A winning way, a pleasant smile, dressed so neat, quite in style

THE MAN KAMUSSEI

Come the man who inverted
I just ok

... AND ...

... and ...
... popular, but women
... to squeeze our own
... on

WILLIAM KAMU

Full of fun and mischief too, doing things he shouldn't do.

KENNETH KASTEN

Good with the good and bad with the bad

we learned the importance of the future.

JANICE KEMINK

Happy go lucky, fair and free, nothing there is that bothers me.

JUDY KEMPFER

Give me a June night, moonlight and FOOD.

JOSEPH KLUZ

I was almost killed once when a train of thought went through my mind

KATHLEEN KINSCHULL

A quiet pleasant manner wins many friends

RICHARD KOTTENITZ

He had no time for girls or fame, a mere diploma was his aim

JOYCE KUK

Her quietness is just a front,

RONALD LANDAAL

What a pity to be born
a rascal and handicapped with a confection!

MARY LANDAAL

Mary usually acts quiet, but when you know her, she's a riot

WISLA LANGER

A modest girl never pursues a man nor does a mousetrap pursue a mouse

DONNA LEHMAN

With her gay laugh or smile some lad's life is made worth-while.

We saw the infancy of the space age.

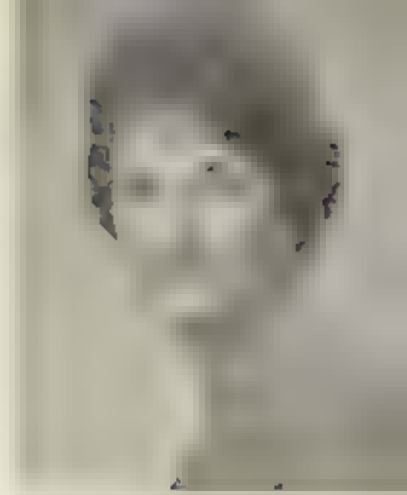

LARRY LEMMON

He is what you would call a truly faithful fellow

MARY LEMMON

I'm from a small town,
but I've got big ideas

MARY LONG

Today I love you--but tomorrow I may see another.

AUDREY LEVY

She's never satisfied with anything short of perfection

GAYE LONGUE

She enters everything with zeal and zest, and ranks in knowledge with the best

BETTY LENTKE

She's too agreeable to make an enemy

KAREN MALCOWSKI

Quiet, efficient, with a friendly smile.

DON McCONNELL

She's true to one--one at a time

NANCIE MARTIN

With a smile, giggle, and rubbing of eyes, Nancie
— how that night time

CERARD MEYER

He smiled and quietly said,
"Don't rush me girls."

We found that even TV must be truthful.

PATRICIA MOLTER

My mother told me there would be moments like this.

JOHN SAHRIS

A man history forgot to mention.

MARY PETERS

Few do what they are supposed to do; she does.

MARGARET OKERSNER

O my toogip, be silent.

DAN POWELL

He's a man, he's a man,
he's a man, he's a man,
he's a man, he's a man.

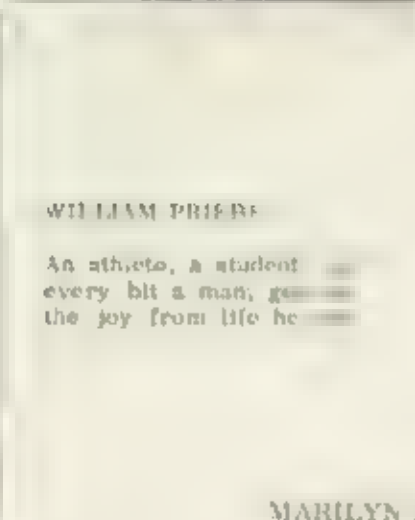

WILLIAM PRIESTS

An athlete, a student, every bit a man, getting the joy from life he

MARCIA QUICK

Short 'n sweet, quiet 'n cool.

MARILYN REDEKER

Her manner is quiet, but don't judge her by it.

WILLARD RENS

You guys look back at your good times, but I look forward to mine

PETER RICHTER

My first love--"Bea"

We saw the reign of rock n roll.

JOAN ROSENBERG

I like to hear jokes, but more than that I like to tell 'em

MILTON SCHEARS

I may be famous. It is true--'cause Truman was a farmer too.

BONNIE McHUTEN

A country man with an honest air, willing to do and willing to share.

BEVERLY SCHMITZ

One way to get ahead and stay ahead is to use your head

OLIVIA SCHOUTEN

I never worry, I never fret. What I can't remember, I just forget.

GLORIA SEEMAN

I'm all right, it's the world

JAMES SHAW

You can tell what kind of wheels are in his head by the spokes that come out of his mouth

JAMES SHAW

I'll argue though the point be small, you can't let the teachers say it all.

SUE STEPHENSON

She never wears a brow of care, but always has plenty of smiles to spare

WILLIAM STRINCHAM

I came, I bluffed, I graduated

American-made cars came in new, compact styles.

ROBERT SWANSON

Attention Waupun co-eds or later you'll rue it, here's God's gift to women, and you never knew it.

MARY TEBBES

Why hurry? Why worry?
The world goes on just the same

RONALD VANDE ZAND

What care I for work, worry, or trouble

MARGUERITE TONN

I may be silly but all life

JANICE VAN ERTEN

In school a quiet lass she seems to be--but who knows if it's true when she's free

WONNIE VAN HIERDEN

She has no heart--he has
it

SHARON VAN LUD

Sometimes a-d, a quieting ad, sometimes in achvous, but never true

JEANNIE VAN HIERDEN

She can't be as quiet as she looks

ARLYN VANT HOFF

You'll never know how good I've been

JUDITH VERHAGE

Sometimes livelier than her mother thinks.

We cheered major-league baseball in Milwaukee.

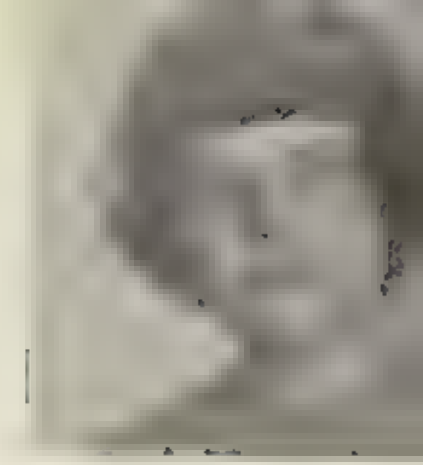

SARAH DAVIS

A gentle heart full of much thought for others

BETTY VOSSLER

High school days have their delights, but they can't compare with high school nights.

SARAH VOLTAN

To live and love is happiness

JUDY VOLK

DAVID WEBER

The harder I try the gooder to be, the worse I am

DONNA WEBER

Fathered after an angel, but someone slipped with the scissors

DEAN WICKMAN

Why wasn't I born rich
Instead of homeless

ROBERT WHITING

I have a car, it's not so new, just show me a road
I can't go through.

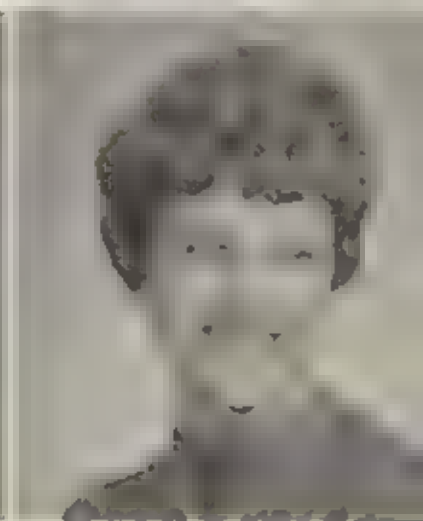

JUDY WILSON

She's been with us only a year, just time to get acquainted here.

MARNE WILSON

I never trouble trouble,
'til trouble troubles me.

We sensed approaching adult responsibilities.

ED WOJAHN

he would say more we ould know more,

TERRY ZAMZOW

I know a lot--I just can't think of it

Band members sold candy to raise money for a trip to the state. Most of the members participated in the Solo and Ensemble Day in Berlin on April 2. Waupun has enjoyed a record of 12 trophies for many years in these contests. Our pep assemblies were enlivened by a 40-piece Pep band throughout the year. Our 60-piece Marching band added music and color to the conference football games in the fall.

1. The first group of authors (e.g., [1, 2]) considers the problem of the stability of the motion of a system of particles in the field of a central body. The results of these studies are used in the theory of the motion of celestial bodies. The second group of authors (e.g., [3, 4]) considers the problem of the stability of the motion of a system of particles in the field of a central body. The results of these studies are used in the theory of the motion of celestial bodies. The third group of authors (e.g., [5, 6]) considers the problem of the stability of the motion of a system of particles in the field of a central body. The results of these studies are used in the theory of the motion of celestial bodies.

Mixed Chorus

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and the goals that need to be achieved.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters.

2. The second part outlines the specific procedures for handling sensitive information. It states that all data must be stored securely and accessed only by authorized personnel. This section also covers the protocols for data retention and disposal, ensuring that information is not kept longer than necessary and is properly destroyed when no longer needed.

3. The third part addresses the issue of compliance with applicable laws and regulations. It notes that the organization must stay up-to-date with changes in legal requirements and ensure that all operations conform to the latest standards. This includes regular audits and reviews to identify and address any potential areas of non-compliance.

4. The fourth part focuses on the role of training and education in maintaining high standards of performance. It suggests that ongoing training programs should be implemented for all employees to ensure they have the necessary skills and knowledge to perform their duties effectively. This includes both technical and soft skills training.

5. The fifth part discusses the importance of communication and collaboration within the organization. It encourages open lines of communication and regular meetings to discuss progress, challenges, and opportunities. This section also highlights the need for clear roles and responsibilities to avoid confusion and ensure that everyone is working towards the same goals.

6. The sixth part covers the topic of risk management. It advises the organization to identify potential risks early on and develop strategies to mitigate them. This includes conducting regular risk assessments and having contingency plans in place to respond to any unforeseen circumstances.

7. The seventh part discusses the importance of innovation and continuous improvement. It encourages the organization to stay ahead of the competition by embracing new technologies and processes. This involves fostering a culture of innovation where employees are encouraged to share ideas and experiment with new approaches.

8. The eighth part addresses the issue of sustainability and environmental responsibility. It notes that the organization should strive to minimize its carbon footprint and promote sustainable practices throughout its operations. This includes initiatives like recycling, energy conservation, and supporting local communities.

9. The ninth part discusses the importance of customer satisfaction and loyalty. It suggests that the organization should focus on providing high-quality products and services, and actively seek feedback from customers to improve their experience. This includes implementing a robust customer service system and offering incentives for loyal customers.

10. The tenth part covers the topic of financial management. It advises the organization to maintain a healthy financial position by carefully managing its budget and controlling costs. This includes regular financial reviews and ensuring that all expenses are properly documented and justified.

11. The eleventh part discusses the importance of human resources management. It suggests that the organization should invest in its workforce by offering competitive salaries, benefits, and a positive work environment. This includes implementing fair hiring practices and providing opportunities for career advancement.

12. The twelfth part addresses the issue of legal and ethical considerations. It notes that the organization must operate within the bounds of the law and adhere to a strong ethical code. This includes being transparent about its operations and taking responsibility for any mistakes or violations.

13. The thirteenth part discusses the importance of community engagement and social responsibility. It suggests that the organization should actively participate in local community activities and support social causes. This includes sponsoring events, donating to charities, and promoting social values.

14. The fourteenth part covers the topic of technology and digital transformation. It advises the organization to leverage technology to streamline its operations and improve efficiency. This includes investing in new software and hardware, and ensuring that all data is protected and secure.

15. The fifteenth part discusses the importance of strategic planning and vision. It suggests that the organization should have a clear long-term vision and strategic plan to guide its operations. This involves setting measurable goals and regularly reviewing progress to ensure the organization is on track to achieve its objectives.

Our book of memories, the WAUBUN, is the responsibility of the senior class. However, the photography is the work of both senior and underclassmen laboring under Mr. Holmes who has developed a capable dark-room crew.

Editor Mary Peters has had the help of Sheryl Rhode, junior editor, who got on-the-job training that prepared her to take over the editorship of the 1961 yearbook. Editors are elected by their classmates at the close of the sophomore year, which gives them time to learn and to plan. Mary says the theme of this book - "retracing our footsteps" - came to her as she read a Hawthorne essay in her junior English course.

The popular WAUBUNETTE has been guided this year by new advisors - Miss Lewke, business staff, and Miss Buehrens, editorial staff. The latter, with Marsha Morrissey as editor, has recorded the student life from the classroom to the playing fields, and from club meetings to the social scene. With Gave Longua as business manager, the paper has appeared at three-week intervals, and an average of 350 students have bought copies at five cents each.

The staff is drawn from all of the high school classes. Every student who is interested in writing is given the chance to try an assignment in the fall.

The purpose of the F.T.A. is to recruit promising juniors and seniors into the teaching profession. The students applied their knowledge through practical experience in the elementary schools. The student teachers worked with absentees and made bulletin board displays. Their advisor is Mrs. Luck. Members meet once month to see films about the teaching profession.

The Future Homemakers of America had 30 members who either have been or are now in the home economics program. The outstanding projects of the F.H.A. included making stuffed animals for children in an orphanage and giving a chili supper for the public. The advisors are Miss Haerterich and Mrs. Biel. Ramon Attenberger, a member of the club, held the office of president in the state organization the past year.

Forensic competition includes four-minute talks, extemporaneous speaking, extemporaneous and interpretative reading, original and non-original oratory, and humorous and dramatic declamations. Students are coached by Mr. Casper, Mr. Howe, Mrs. Kasteln, Mrs. Luck, Mrs. Niles, Miss Vaughan, and Miss Buehrens. Winners of the local contest enter the Little Ten freshman-sophomore contest, the Little Ten conference meet, the district meet, and the state finale.

"That the federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions" was the proposition debated this year. Seventeen Waupun students, coached by Mr. Casper, chairman of speech activities, met almost every night after school for several months. The A and B teams attended five invitational meets besides the Little Ten tournament which was held in Ripon this year. The A team won second place at the Ripon event and went to Preble High School for the district tournament.

In a triangular meet with Horicon and Mayville, Waupun placed second; in a meet with Ripon and Mayville, Waupun again took second honors. In one invitational, Waupun placed ninth among twelve competing schools; in another, the team was twelfth among fourteen contenders. In the conference meet, Waupun had eighth place among the ten schools represented. Bruce Belsma represented Waupun at the sectional meet in Ripon where he won first honors in the pole vault. Terry Zamzow placed third in the 100-yard dash in the same meet.

Hermann, Drummy, Wichner, Seeman, Richter. Those were never defeated in a single conference match were Hermann, Seeman, Garcia, and Richter.

Hard work and experience were good for us.

Prom - 1959

KING DEAN WICKMAN and QUEEN SUE STEPHENSON

A grass hut on the mountain, Bali Hai, emphasized the South Pacific theme of the 1959 junior prom. A net canopy, decorated with flowers, hung from the gym ceiling. The hut served as the refreshment center.

Sue Stephenson and Dean Wickman were our royalty for the evening. Bob Larson's orchestra provided music for dancing from nine to one. Then we were off to the hotel and the cafeteria club where our local service clubs were sponsoring a post-prom party. The South Pacific theme had been used in decorations for both places. The hard work of the juniors was rewarded by the large attendance and by the good time everyone had.

THE COURT: Betty Bruins, Joan Rosenberg, Gardie Dalton, Ken Kastein, Larry Lemmones, Bill Priolo, CROWN BEARERS: Colleen Albert and David Wickman.

Trampoline Club

Another member to our group of extraordinary athletes, the Trampoline club, under the direction of Mrs. Moroni, has given several public exhibitions of their remarkable feats. They have performed many somersaults, and some of the feats performed on the springy canvas. The club presented a program at the hall time of the C. has basketball game here February. Another appearance was made at a variety show in the spring at the Kwan.

A new experience! O-o-o, what fun!

'Lil' Alner (Don DeMott) and Daisy Mae (Sharon Straks)

Sadie Hawkins

Cheers were thunderous when Daisy Mae finally caught "Lil" Alner, who was Don DeMott, dressed in patched overalls. Sharon Straks took the part of Daisy Mae. After Daisy Mae's victorious catch, the Dog Patch couple was joined in "howling wedlock" by Marvin' Sam, played by Tom Ellmann.

Straw hats and pipes did not hinder the fun of the other couples at the party. They participated in volleyball and shuffleboard games until it was their turn to meet Mr. and Mrs. Sam.

Activities of the evening included a contest. Judy Kempfer and Pete Richter received a prize for being the "best-dressed" couple.

Here we found that we knew the ropes.

Eighth Grade

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 18 young people, likely a school group, posing in two rows. The front row is seated, and the back row is standing. They are dressed in mid-20th-century attire. The image is grainy and has a high-contrast, almost stencil-like quality.

$\mathcal{A} = \{A_1, \dots, A_n\}$ is a family of n subsets of S , then \mathcal{A} is called a λ -family if for every $i, j \in \{1, \dots, n\}$, $i \neq j$, $|A_i \cap A_j| = \lambda$.

It was fun to change classes each hour.

Junior Band

The Junior Band included forty-two seventh graders and thirty eighth graders at the end of first semester. Under the direction of Mr. Hansen, the band meets three times a week for group practicing. In addition to the regular practice period, each member has one individual lesson each week under the direction of Mr. Hansen. The students selected for the band are:

President Bill Shaw
 Vice President Jill Larson
 Treasurer David G.
 Members Richard Mast, . . .

Bill Shaw

David Vande Zande was selected drum major on the basis of her previous abilities. Noreen Redeker, Jill Larson, Bill VanHaren, and Barbara Buchholz were selected as majorettes. The Junior Band has participated in the Homecoming parade and the Homecoming presentation program jointly with the Senior Band. The juniors also presented the first section of the Mid-Winter Concert. From Christmas until April, forty-two solos and six ensembles were diligently practicing for the Solo-Ensemble contest held April 2. They also practiced hard for the Band Festival in which they participated. Their final appearance of the year was the Memorial Day parade.
